Hi Frank,

I'm attaching a first cut of the pollinator paper; its really rough though, because I couldn't remember the answers to some questions I know I asked you before (apologies!!). So I am writing them below, so I can look at your answers over and over instead of asking you over and over again (in theory at least)! And then that will help me cut more.

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Note: I haven't edited the table of contents/appendices at all, waiting until I hear from you about the above.

Also, my skype is not working for some reason, so email is better.

Thanks,
Pam
